

Proposal for opening up

I propose that we welcome new players to training. Complete newbies can come on a Thursday and more experienced and confident players can come on a Tuesday. Newbies must read our welcome leaflet and agree to it. We can open for a month and review.

Background

At some point in spring 2022, we were getting 30+ players at training and did not have the space for anymore so we closed to new players. Since then, we have received many requests from people hoping to join. In response to this, the Tuesday game-only session was born in the hope that current Cows would spread between the two sessions thus making space in both Tuesdays and Thursdays for newbies to join.

Pros

More women, non-binary and trans people playing football

Fresh ideas and blood

Inline with our inclusive ethos

More money

Cons

Less experienced people on a Tuesday might make it less safe

Might reduce team coherency
